

Erli Zdrava - Legal Advisor

Erli Zdrava is a Legal Advisor graduated in Law at the University of Genoa, Italy with also a master degree at the same university. He obtained another master degree in Urban Social Development and Human Resources as a joint degree with Erasmus University of Rotterdam. From 2013, Erli is a member of the Albanian National Bar Association focused especially in administrative law.

Erli was involved as a lecturer in different universities in the subjects of urban and administrative law.

For two years he held the position of expert and team manager in the public administration.

From 2014, Erli was part of project teams in different projects with foreign and Albanian donors, focused on administrative and procurement procedures. In these projects, he also contributed as an external advisor for other project partners, part of central or local government. He was part of different projects involving different partners and multinational teams. As a legal advisor, he is focused especially on the Albanian legislation and EU legislation on procurement procedures.

Erli is focused on solving different issues, always showing a friendly approach with all the parties involved. His ability to always adapt and be open minded are some of the most important values of his expertise.