

Xhiljola Abdihoxha – Coordinator

She graduated from University of Tirana, Faculty of Foreign Languages, in 2008-2011; bachelor in “British and American Studies”. Soon after, she successfully pursued a scientific master degree in “Intercultural and Touristic Language and Communication”, 2011-2013. After that, she started working as a lecturer in the Faculty of Natural Sciences, Agricultural University of Tirana etc. During this period of time, she has also worked as a translator interpreter for different organizations, by so enlarging and developing a deep background and understanding of the language. She possesses leadership, strong communication, organizational and motivational skills. She is currently a lecturer of English language and also a project coordinator.