

Arbi Agalliu

Expert in financial markets and products

"Arbi Agalliu finished his studies at the University of Tirana, Faculty of Economics, and Master's Degree in European Economic Studies at "Bamberg University Germany" and at the University of Tirana, Faculty of Economics. He has over 10 years of undergraduate teaching experience, several years of experience working in financial projects, etc. He has had leadership positions in different educational institutions. He has taken part in various academic activities of international universities in Italy, Slovakia, Romania, Finland, Spain, etc. He has also organized and participated in various scientific activities related to "Banking System", "Human Capital", "Insurance Companies" etc. He is an expert in financial markets and products"