BIO

PhD. Ark. Saimir Kristo is an architect and urban designer. He is also part of Maker Space - ArkiLAB, Creative Europe projects (LINA and Temporaneity), coordinator of Erasmus + projects at the Faculty level and open forums. Other commitments include pursuing MSc Architecture degrees.

He graduated from POLIS University in 2011 in the MSc program in Architecture and Urban Design and completed his studies in the MSc Applied Design in 2013.

He has been engaged in a series of activities in the field of art, design and architecture, as well as in the role of curator of the Architecture Week in Tirana 2014 entitled "[For] Imaging the Cities of the Future"; Design Week in Tirana 2015 (Design NOW!) Until the selection as European Young Curator at the "CEI Venice Forum for Contemporary Art Curators" in 2019.

Continuing his professional and academic engagements, he completes his doctoral studies in the joint program of POLIS University (Albania) and the University of Ferrara (Italy) focused on "Urban Catalysts" and creative ways of interaction in public space, based on the accumulated experience as leaders in Urban and Development Regulatory Plans in Albania.
